Camp for Kids: Design Your Own Video Game

April 18-22 Spring Break

Do you know an kids on Spring Break with nothing to do? Kids ages 8 to 14 can come to Video Game Camp and learn to create their own PC Video Games. Using a simple, icon-based programming language, kids will build their own worlds—with trees, mountains, rivers, and buildings – and then populate them with characters. They will program their characters' movement and set their own game rules. Video game campers will play each other's games, and at the end of the week, awards will be given to the creators of the favorites. Bring a USB flash drive (minimum of two gigabytes) to the first class.
